PRESS RELEASE

Date: 02/09/2020
Case Number: 20ES00704

Narrative:

On 02/09/2020, at approximately 0008 hours, Essex Police received a call for the report of a glass break alarm coming from the Champlain Farms, 56 Pearl Street in Essex Junction.

Upon arrival, officers determined an attempted burglary had occurred after observing damage to the front door. It was determined entry as not gained into the business. Officers searched the immediate area and located two juveniles in the Domino's Pizza on Pearl Street. During the course of the investigation the juveniles admitted to causing the damage.

Both juveniles were cited into juvenile court to answer to the charge of Unlawful Mischief and released to their parents.

Later, that morning the Community Bank, 54 Pearl St. reported damage to an ATM. The investigation continues to see if the two incidents are related.
