PRESS RELEASE

Date: March 13, 2022
Case Number: 22ES001563

On March 13, 2022, at 1931 hours, the Essex Police Department was notified of a missing elderly male who had left his house in Essex two hours prior. Essex Police officers on the scene learned the male has Parkinson's Disease and was not dressed for the cold.

K9 Nova from the Essex Police Department conducted a track for the male which led them onto Pearl Street near gate B of the Fairgrounds. The male was located on the ground in the parking lot of KFC at 126 Pearl Street. He was evaluated on scene and transported to the UVM Medical Center for treatment of hypothermia.

The Essex Police Department would like to thank the Vermont State Police and St. Michael's Rescue for their assistance during this incident.
