PRESS RELEASE

Date: 05/21/2016

Case Number: 16ES02633

Narrative: On Saturday May 21, 2016 around 2230 hours the Essex Police responded to a report of two vehicles traveling at a high rate of speed that were heading into Essex on Route 128 from Westford. An officer traveling north on Browns River Road clocked one of the suspected vehicles, a pick-up truck, at 82 miles per hour. The officer activated his emergency blue lights and siren but the truck failed to stop. The truck pulled into the driveway at 301 Browns River Road and the operator fled on foot. After searching the area, officers located a male who refused to identify himself. Officers took the male into custody and upon searching his person found the ignition key to the truck in his pocket. The male subsequently identified himself as [REDACTED], 19, of Williston. [REDACTED] was processed and lodged at Chittenden County Correctional Center on charges of Felony Eluding a Police Officer and Excessive Speed. [REDACTED] bail was set at $2500.
