PRESS RELEASE

Date: 04-23-2013
Case Number: 13ES01932

Narrative:

On April 23, 2013, Officers and Detectives from Essex, South Burlington and Shelburne executed a search warrant at 292 Brigham Hill Road in Essex. On April 14, 2013 during a traffic stop for expired registration, the presence of marijuana was detected. The operator of the vehicle, [REDACTED] 27 of Burlington, provided written consent to search the vehicle. Shortly thereafter [REDACTED] fled the scene on foot and eluded police. The vehicle was seized and a small amount of marijuana, an unidentified powder and over $2000 in cash were recovered. Subsequent investigations led to the application and issuance of a search warrant.

During the execution of the search warrant of the residence, police recovered marijuana, narcotics and other unidentified substances along with approximately $12,000 in cash. [REDACTED] and Kathleen Baker of Essex were at the residence and taken into custody. [REDACTED] was charged and arraigned on the following, possession of marijuana, felony possession of narcotics and resisting arrest. Baker was charged with possession of marijuana and released on a citation due to appear in court in June.
